

BATHROOM SHELF

I wanna meet that girl

Sitting on your bathroom shelf having the best time

I wanna feel like her

Not a care in the world looks like she's been there her whole life

Cos she's got your love the kind of love I want for myself

I wanna be that girl in the picture sitting on your bathroom shelf

I wanna take her place

Waiting for her sweet love to come home

I want her yesterdays

Half asleep half awake her mind blown

Cos she's got your love the kind of love I want for myself

Cos she's got your love the kind of love I want for myself

The way you look at her the passion in your eyes

I know she must have been completely hypnotised

Oh, I wanna be that girl

Cos she's got your love, the kinda love I want for myself

Cos she's got your love, the kinda love I want for myself

Chilling on your bathroom shelf, Smoking on your bathroom shelf

PERFECT IMPERFECTIONS

I like the way your eyes crinkle in the corner

Just a little more each year

And that crooked smile I wake up to each morning

So beautiful sometimes I have to cry a tear

All the little flaws that make you insecure

You try to keep from showing

Everything you do could only be you

It's why my love keeps growing

Oh your perfect imperfections

Just make me love you more

All these perfect imperfections

Create the you that I adore

I love it when you try to curse and what comes out just sounds absurd,

And you get mad when I laugh

You get frustrated when you try to put your hair up high

And those curls escape right down your back

All the little flaws that make you insecure

You try to keep from showing

Everything you do could only be you

It's why my love keeps growing

Oh your perfect imperfections

Just make me love you more

All these perfect imperfections

Create the you that I adore

LET THE GOOD TIMES BEGIN

I don't know what it is about you
But I can feel you from far away
Can't tell you where my head is at
But you've been living there all day
I know it's crazy but you touched a nerve
With just the things you say
But that's okay

Let the good times begin. Let the good times begin
Let's forget all that's been before. Let the good times begin

Already gave you a piece of my heart
Before I'd even seen your face
The way you listen to my words
You're leading me astray
But that's okay

Let the good times begin. Let the good times begin
Let's forget all that's been before. Let the good times begin
Lord I know all the risks. I know all the risks
But I need to be kissed by love again
Let the good times begin

SPEAKING IN TONGUES

You left me wearing a guard on my heart
That I can't take apart
It's a permanent part of me now
Had me believing you meant everything
That you said when you said
That you won't let the world let me down
You were speaking in tongues; I got hooked on your song
I was fooled for so long
All those tales you spun. How did I get it so wrong?

Told me that I was your queen
A beautiful vision you've seen in your dreams
In the deep of the night
Showering compliments down
Like you worshipped the ground that I walk on
And I drowned in your lies
You were speaking in tongues; I got hooked on your song
I was fooled for so long
All those tales you spun. How did I get it so wrong?

*Misunderstood or misrepresented?
Was I coerced or had I consented?
Half-truths or wishful thinking?
Exaggerating or deceiving?*
You were speaking in tongues; I got hooked on your song
I was fooled for so long
All those tales you spun. How did I get it so wrong?

BEHIND THE SCENES

It's hard to look straight through the spotlight

When you're on the other side

My imagination runs free

Only I can see what's in my mind

And you're so damn perfect. More than beautiful

Just hope I can be everything you want

So tell me who do you see standing here naked and free

Is it real. Is it me

Shameless pictures framing reality

Half-truths half lies sentimentality

Hate filled screens don't tell you anything

The real me, real me, real me

Is waiting behind the scenes

After the curtain closes. Makeup swiped away

Illusions fade into another boring day

And I'm far from perfect. Raw and insecure

Everything you need from me is left at the stage door

Do you still want to see me standing here naked and free

Hit the lights. Count the beats

Shameless pictures framing reality

Half-truths half lies sentimentality

Hate filled screens don't tell you anything

The real me, real me, real me

Is waiting behind the scenes

WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW

You kind of know me
But not as well as you think
I hold my cards close to my chest
There's only so much hurt a girl can take

You know how I take my coffee
And the songs that make me cry
The way I like to be kissed
And the film I've watched a thousand times

But baby what you don't know
Baby what you don't know
Is what you do to me

You know I hold my breath
When we take off in a plane
You know I talk in my sleep
When I fake a smile and say I'm fine

But baby what you don't know
Baby what you don't know
Something that you don't know
Is what you do to me

OPPOSITES

You're a little more out to party than me

I prefer to get chill and arty

Yeah we are like chalk and cheese

We're head-to-head when you're on your knees

You drink red I drink white

You love the morning I'm alive at night

You're early I'm late

I always think twice you never hesitate

When you wanna sit I'm on the dance floor

If I've had enough you want just a little more

always two ways one for you and one for me

But I could never think of a better way

When I'm with you it's like Saturday every day it's a fact

Opposites attract

It's always hard to find a place to go

You like the beach I like the mountains snow

You're sunshine I'm shade

Aint good or bad it's just the way we're made

I'm on solid ground when you're ready to fly

I laugh so hard and you're kind of shy

Always two ways one for you and one for me

And I could never think of a better way

when I'm with you it's like Saturday every day it's a fact

So please don't ever change your ways don't ever feel we need to be the same we don't need to be the same

Cos I could never think of a better way

When I'm with you it's like Saturday every day it's a fact

Opposites attract

LIE AS EASY AS YOU BREATHE

When we first met I was about 19
No doubt you were the wildest thing I'd ever seen
The coat you wore that swept the floor
Your cocky grin and thrown on scarf cashmere in aubergine
Your conversations were works of art
Stole my mind blew my heart. You blew my heart

You lie as easy as you breathe
You lie as easy as you breathe
How can you sleep with all those secrets that you keep?
You lie as easy, You lie just as easy as you breathe

I found pictures on your phone of your date
The night you said you were working late
Urgent case alone
Now my mind's a battlefield
Without weapons or a shield, a shield

But you lie as easy as you breathe
You lie as easy as you breathe
You smile at me so sweet with all those secrets you keep
You lie as easy, You lie just as easy as you breathe
You lie as easy as you breathe
You lie as easy as you breathe
You lie as easy as you breathe

DON'T GIVE UP

Life is rough when every bone is aching
Feels like your back is breaking and you can't stop shaking

Tomorrow is a day away

Don't give up. Don't give up

Cos you're more than, more than enough you know

You got this. Don't give up

Times are tough. Can't see the path ahead

Struggling out of bed. Slept but got no rest

Tomorrow is a day away

Cos you're more than more than enough you see

You got this. Don't give up

Underneath the waning moon sweet relief will be here soon

You can try again

I know you got the strength within to let a new day begin

So hear me when I say

Don't give up. Don't give up

Cos you're more than more than enough you see

You got this. Don't give up

Don't give up The sun is shining free

Don't give up You always got me

Don't give up Even when it rains

Don't give up This pain will end

Don't give up

YOU'RE BEAUTIFUL

Like a cuckoo waiting behind doors
For a breakthrough to the world you're longing for My hearts worn to threadbare
When I think of what you've been through
All those years uncried tears afraid to be you

You're beautiful. So beautiful
Face of an angel curves soft and gentle
Always remember
That you're beautiful through and through

Now you're living your true reality
I will give anything I can to bring you peace
A flower in bloom you brighten the room
Shadows have fallen away
Petals so tender; Winter's light years from today

You're beautiful. So beautiful
Face of an angel curves soft and gentle
Always remember
That you're beautiful through and through

SWEET DREAMS

Sometimes I don't wanna go home
Cos I know you're not gonna be there
Look at your face on my phone; memories we share
Shake off the rough of the day as I shower
As the sun falls you know you're in my thoughts
Tonight you'll be giving me sweet dreams
Tonight you'll be giving me sweet dreams
Tonight you'll be giving me sweet dreams
And when I go to bed you know you're in my head

You're running over town; got people who need you
But baby you got to slow down; I can't wait till I see you
Cos when I'm close to you you make it true
Tonight you'll be giving me sweet dreams
Tonight giving me sweet sweet dreams
All night you're giving me sweet dreams
You're in my head. You're giving me sweet dreams

*I see you in my dreams I feel you next to me
You're the sweetest of dreams it's reality it seems
I really need you on my team the lead role in my scene
Everlasting ever green you're so different so unique
You're a star like Michelin you're the piece I was missing
You're the missing piece to my puzzle you're just fitting in This world that we're living in is crazy
But when I sleep its sweet dreams about my baby
Cruising in Mercedes roof missing hair blowing in the great breeze
This bond they don't make these its burning it won't freeze
They could search the great seas we're stronger than eight trees*
